Lower Camp Creek Social News

Camp Creek School House was the scene of a much enjoyed Valentine party Friday evening, Feb. 11th. All the young people of the community and some of the older ones were present.

When the guests had all arrived, they were given fishing lines and rods and bidden to fish in an artificial pond in corner of the room. It was a splendid night for the sport and not a single line came up empty. The fish had assumed the shape of hearts, with a prophetic verse on one side and a number the young men found their mates. All then purchased tickets for an imaginary trip from New York to St. Augustine and return via New Orleans.

On the back of each ticket was a series of questions to be answered with words beginning with owners initials. This kept the trip down from being tiresome. To help while away the time on the return trip each couple was given a package of broken hearts to mend. This proved a hard task tho, and many gave up—even the young ladies who broke the hearts found it exceedingly difficult to mend them.

The climax of the evening was reached when "Cupid's Mail Box" was opened and its contents distributed. Not many failed to receive a beautiful valentine (?) showing his own peculiar, characteristic and for the rest of the evening fun ran high. A number of the young men sang some of the old plantation songs and thus the evening closed.

On Friday evening, Feb. 18, Mr. Reamy Jones entertained a large number of his friends at his father's home.

The parlor and the dining hall were thrown into one, the young men found a fair partner, each, and all were soon enjoying various games. A worthy son of Africa was hired to furnish music for the evening and his shiny face glowed with pleasure as he liberated the music.

Mrs. Jones and her three sons, W. D. Jr., Reamy and Charlie, made everyone feel at home and saw to it that all had a good time.

The time passed all too rapidly and ere we realized it the time had come to say good night.

LEXINGTON MAN AIDING FRIENDS IN FINE WAY

R. H. Caughman, Prominent Citizen, Possesses Spirit of Helpfulness.

He Is Doing Much to Make Town—Investigation Proves Value of His Work.

The spirit of helping others is abroad in the land, and this part of the world surely must be growing better and healthier. A Lexington man desire to help some unfortunate brother or sister. He has already shown a number of people residing in Lexington how to better the state of their health by taking Tanlac, as investigation proved. He wants to continue this good work. That is his reason for giving the interview published below.

This man, who may be described as a humanitarian, is R. N. Caughman, of Lexington, S. C., one of the well known citizens of that town, who is related to many prominent people in his and Richland counties.

"I had stomach trouble and indigestion for a considerable number of months, and could hardly eat anything without suffering keenly soon afterwards," said Mr. Caughman, as the interview began. "I had intestinal troubles, too. My appetite failed, and my system began to show the strain it was under. I took a lot of medicine, but it gave me no permanent relief," he continued.

"I had heard so much about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial. The first few doses made a marked difference in my condition. I improved rapidly, and about the time the first bottle was taken, I was troubled no longer with indigestion and its kindred ills. I can eat now anything I care to. I have a good appetite. Pork chops, cabbage and other heavy foods do not cause me pain. It was about two months ago that I stopped taking Tanlac, and I now have no symptoms of my former trouble.

"I can heartily recommend Tanlac. I have told dozens about it, and those I have heard from say they have been helped. Tanlac is the best medicine I have ever taken. It is worth bragging on."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively by J. F. Mackey & Co., Lancaster; Peoples Drug & Gro. Co., Heath Springs; C. O. Floyd, Kershaw. Price: $1 per bottle straight.
